HOUSE Groups: Discussion Questions:

Daniel 11:1-35

(Key Verse)

Daniel 11:32 "Those who do wickedly against the covenant he shall corrupt with flattery; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and carry out [great exploits]."

Question: Why is it important to study Biblical prophecy?

Question: How does fulfilled prophecy in the Bible show itself as one of the main proofs that God inspired the writing of the Scriptures?

Question: How does seeing that all of Daniel's prophecies came to pass, and were recorded by secular historians as fact encourage your faith in the Lord?

Question: Knowing that God is always faithful to His Word; what are some of your favorite promises found in the Scriptures?

Question: How does difficulty refine our faith, and cause us to turn to the Lord for help?

Question: Share a time in your life when you have seen the Lord be true to His word, and help you through a difficult time.

Question: What does it mean to know God, and how does knowing God strengthen you to do great things?

Practical Application:

Share with each other any prayer requests or needs that you may have, and use scripture to address those needs. Encourage, and pray for one another!
